

Semaine du 11/11/10 au 15/11/2019

English

Click on the link below to check a YouTube video. The video is about the difference between “have” and “have got” and how to use each one in the affirmative, negative and interrogative forms. Watch the whole video and then complete the exercises.

Video Link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Donh0HlhApE>

Exercises:

1. Which form is more British? “Have” or “Have got”?

.....

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of the verbs.

Part I: Have

- a. I ..... a nice car. (affirmative)
- b. She ..... time today. (negative long form)
- c. Carla ..... her books. (negative short form)
- d. .... We ..... time today?

Part II: Have Got

- a. The girls ..... a pen. (negative short form)
- b. Joey ..... a nice shirt. (affirmative short form)
- c. Jenny ..... beautiful hair. (affirmative long form)
- d. .... Jessica ..... a car?